

INTRODUCTION

We equip our children with the values and attitudes to confidently face the challenges of our present technological world. We teach them to be sensitive, empathetic, secular and tolerant. Mount Abu Public School is eager to excel and; achieve, yet never to leave lose sight of the strong value-based foundation embodied in our motto “Work is Worship” as we believe that the best preparation for tomorrow is doing our best today.

A good education gives children wings to fly and fulfil their dreams, ensuring a brighter future. It is a pleasure to have the opportunity to give back what we have learnt from our mentors and teachers. We believe that the early formative years are critical for each child to grow up as a bright, mature and responsible individual.

OUR VISION / MISSION

OUR MISSION

We strive to create a dynamic learning community which nurtures and inspires every individual to be the best they can be. Our mission at MAPS is to educate, empower and enlighten our students to help them become informed, ingenious and indefatigable Indians.

Our vision is to create a community where all kids feel valued, loved, and inspired to reach their best potential.

Our mission is to offer high-quality learning and child care in a caring, respectful environment that creates the foundation for lifelong learning.

WORDS BY PRINCIPAL

Our school would like to bring in the dimension of the whole human being by nurturing the mind, body and spirit. Our teachers are trained to provide an invigorating classroom environment where every learner can develop mental agility through independent thinking and reflection.

Our school has a firm belief that children should be encouraged to dream, and passionately pursue their dreams. We work towards opening their minds, helping them identify their interests and aspirations, and nourishing their talents. Our motive is to festoon the minds of our students with the qualities of tolerance, dignity, respect, labour, and other essential virtues which will help them shape their destinies in the right manner. The key contribution of IT to education is that it can allow the student's interests, needs, strengths, and weaknesses to drive the learning process, with the instructor facilitating rather than dictating.

We provide an atmosphere which helps to develop an inquisitive mind for creative intelligence.

Join us on this journey whilst we prepare our fledglings for the first flight. Let us see them soar to heights with joy, curiosity and ambition in their hearts.

Best Wishes

EARTH ACTIVITY

“Away, away, from men and towns, To the wildwood and the downs, —To the silent wilderness, Where the soul need not repress its music.”

Every action, no matter how big or small, matters in making the Earth a healthier planet. JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

“A Man Is Made By His Beliefs. As He Believes. So He Becomes.” – Lord Krishna

Janmashtami is celebrated as the birthday of Lord Krishna, one of the most powerful and famous reincarnations of Lord Vishnu. According to the Hindu calendar, this festival is celebrated on the Ashtami of Krishna Paksh or the 8th day of the dark fortnight in the month of Bhadon. This day indicated the beginning of hope in the older times; hope, that the malicious rule of Kansa would soon end.

To seek the blessings of Lord Krishna, Janmashtami was celebrated at Mount Abu Public School with mirth and joy.

Being Humane and Kind should be our SUPER POWER

We as adults are role models for our kids, the way we interact with people around us is keenly observed by our little ones and emulated in their behaviours. Therefore, what will help us and our society immensely is the need to develop empathy, sympathy, compassion and kindness as our super powers. In its simplest form, empathy is the ability to recognize emotions in others, and to understand other people's perspectives on a situation. At its most developed stage, empathy enables us to use that insight to improve someone else's mood and to support them through challenging situations. Compassion and empathy are important attributes for adults and children to have. Not only does it help us to understand and relate to people from all walks of life, it also improves our capacity to communicate with others to be a part of the team and to enhance our leadership skills. I feel it is our responsibility to help our children to develop a strong sense of sympathy with people around us because it helps them to build a sense of security and stronger relationships with other children, positioning them well for learning. It encourages tolerance and acceptance of others. It promotes good mental health which is the need of the hour. Being kind and gentle can help our children build trust and strengthen relationships as they grow older. They will gradually understand to interact sensitively and with the intent to understand the feelings of others. So if we want the world to be a better place, we need to infuse these super powers in ourselves to become better learners and read others more accurately, and show better social behaviour. Unexpected kindness is the most powerful, least costly and most underrated agent of human change. We just need to be kind, unconditionally and without ulterior motive, even- rather, especially- when we'd prefer not to be. Yet, learning goes beyond the walls of a classroom, beyond the common paraphernalia of chalk and duster. Education has been revolutionized and has become increasingly progressive in today's world. The concept of learning is no longer related to the local context but is always understood in the global context. We don't view the world with a perspective which belongs only to our community or our city. With the advent of technology and the modern age, the perspectives have shifted and allowed a multitude of opinions, conflating and conflicting with each other, to reach a cohesive understanding. Ideas become words and words become knowledge, and that knowledge is the sum of all our learning. Unlike a mathematical equation where $A+A$ gives us $2A$, learning is not a straightforward approach as it goes back and forth, with a million permutations and combinations, fitting and ascribing itself to individual values. However, it is communicated with a holistic approach, keeping in mind every possibility. As we progress, we tend to leave behind archaic methods of teaching and learning, and move into a realm where education has changed its face completely. Yet the Chalk and Duster, the quintessential elements of learning are not forgotten. What used to be cannot be forgotten in favor of what will be as the future cannot exist without the past and teaching and learning cannot forgo the beloved chalk and duster.
